

Just get it over with at this point.

We don't need duplicate channels for everything any more. Digital tuners are cheap. HDTV sets are now widely available.

We need to get rid of the analog channels so the weaker digital ones can up their power levels.

This duplicate transmission scheme has gone long enough and is a waste of everyone's money, especially for PBS stations.